Student fills out an online application. Home school counselor receives an email indicating the student has submitted an online application. Home school counselor logs into the online application portal, completes all steps in the process and then submits the application.

Home school counselor notifies the MVCTC when all student applications for the district have been submitted. MVCTC administration processes the district's applications and notifies students of acceptance.